John R. Thomas is the only candidate for Vier-President. He has served in such capacity for the last year, and has been a citing rresident since Congressman Juseph C. Hendrix resigned last Fall to take his seat in the House of Representatives.

Mr. houck ran for the Fresidency last year, but was defeated by Hendrix by two votes, he was the elected Vier-resident by six he was then elected Vice-tresident by six votes, but refused to serve. He was ampointed in 1887 by Mayor Whitney and in 1890 he was elected Vice-Fre-leant.

Mr. Weir is said to be a friend of "Boss" Mc-Laughlin, who is said to favor his election. He served in the Board of Aldermen in 1870-83, and was one of the Aldermen who were sent to jail in 1883 for contempt of court for villating an order restraining the Board from granting a franchise to the Brooklyn Elevated Mailroad Company. Nate hbors Interfered. John Barnes, of Belmont avenue pear Stone avenue, was held to await the action of the Grand Jury by Justice Connelly, at the Gates Avenue Police Court, nelly, at the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning.

A week ago Barnes came home under the influence of liquor and threw a pan of beans at his wife. He then knocked her down, broke two of her right arm Mrs. Barnes became unconscious, and while in this condition Barnes picked up a carving knfe, and was about to use it upon her when some occupants of the house took the weapon away from him. The injured woman was taken to a hospital, where she remained until today, when she was able to appear against the prisoner.

The only excuse Barnes gave to the Justice for his action was that he was drunk at the time, and did not know what he was doing.

IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL. IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL.

The patrons of the Imperial Music Hall 'ast night could see no reason why the popular resort should close Saturday night, even though it is stated to be for the purpose of furbishing up the place and adding to its attractiveness. Many will miss it, and be glad when it is reopened. The performance this week is given by Charles Compton, the English star; Eunice Vanice, Conroy and Fox, Armstrong and McBride, Annie Sults, Von Leer and Barton, Dell Jackson, Bryan and Saville, Joseph Natus, 'the Quaker City Quartet and Harry Le Clair, all first-rate entertainters.

TONY PASTOR'S.

Clair, all first-rate entertainters.

TONY PASTOR'S.

There is only one Tony Pastor in these United States, and even the roof gardens cannot diminish the patronage of the little theatre in Tammany Hall. As the novelty this week, Miss Clara Beckwith, who lives, sits, walks, plays, waltzes, reads and acts under water, was introduced last night. Her performance in the big glass tank was elever enough to win the applause of the critical audience, and Tony's auditioned the critical audience, and Tony's auditioned the critical audience, and Tony's audition of the critical audience. Frank Bush, the clever dialectician; Will H. Fox, Lizzie B. Raymond, Will C. Mauthews and Nellie Harris, Marion and Belle, Miss Isabella Ward, the Nawns and Ferry, the frog-man, helped make the entertainment thoroughly satisfactory.

KELLAR AT DALY'S.

Magician Kellar is still at Daly's Theatre. His programme this week is a novel one, replete with new tricks and new illusions. He presents his chief assistant, Nana Sahit, who is a wonderful performer in his line. All sorts of domestic articles, chairs, &c., float upon the stage through the air, seeminsjy without the assistance of any one or of any natural law, "La Cocoon" is one of the pretiest things seen at a Kellar show this season, and is Mr. Kellar's latest creation in mystery. TONY PASTOR'S.

The weather makes little difference in the attendance at Koster & Blai's. There was another large audience last night, which apparently enjoyed the new features presented. Dufour and Hartley were seen in new songs and dances, and Charles Hayden gave some dances, and Charles Hayden gave some new American character impersonations. Mile. Juanita Bardoux began the last week of her engagement here, and Lottic Collard sang and danced with spirit. Others who constituted the programme were Wood and Shepard and the Borani Brothers, "La Belle Helene" and "The Admiral" were repeated. Mile. Diamantine, the chanteuse eccentrique, will make her first appearance at Koster & Bial's next week. EDEN MUSEE.

EDEN MUSEE.

M. Guibal began the last week of his long engagement at the Eden Musee last night. His exhibition of psychonotism and mystic art has baffled the thousands who have visited the Eden Musee during the past year, and the last opportunity to see Guibal and his pretty assistant, Miss Marie Greville, will doubtless be taken advantage of by amusement lovers. Lizzle Derious Daly also began the last week of her engagement with a change of popular songs. M. Delprade introduced another new illusion. Miss Adde Purvis repeated her ciever wire act, following with a serpentine dance on a globe and juggling.

HUBER'S MUSEUM.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Mrs. Minute Estelle
Williams, a handsome recite and wife of Tecenie Williams, a horse jockey, was shot and fatally injured by Edward A. Cadwell, a horse trainer, at 4.20 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Williams and another woman stent is at pight in the cimpany of Cadwell at 2828 State street, the party indulging freely in the use of liquer.

The show at Huber's Museum is a big one for little money this week. In the vaudeville entertainment are seen Donovan and Navorad, delineators of frish character; the Clarisse sisters, who perform on many musical instruments. James Donahue in a dancing specially and Crosby and Wray, acrobatic specialists known as Puck and Judge. Krao the missing link, attracts attention in the cure hall, and, by the way, this is her last appearance here. Young Sampton, the strong man, and Fedora, the "make enchantress," add their share to the show, and any one not satisfied in the small of the back. Cadwell was ar-HUBER'S MUSEUM. dime.

ELDORADO.

There was a large increase in the ballet at Eldorado-on-the-Hudson last night, and a new dance which pleased the large audience was given. "King Solomon is a spectacle worth going over the river to see more than once, and the display of fireworks after the performance is itself a show. The boxing kengaroo and the other specialists, while somewhat incongruous, no doubt form quite an attraction, and they certainly receive as much appleuse as the pretitest stage picture. The special vaudeville performance in the afternoon seems to be appreciated. ELDORADO.
